

THE HISTORY OF UNIPAK™

Two decades of growth

2004

Uni-Pak founded by Julian Anderson, a national wholesaler business selling food packaging and medical gloves.

25
RESELLER
NETWORK

2005

Reseller network grows to 25, distributing our products from Cape Reinga to Bluff and everywhere in between.

2006

Disposable glove demand doubles thanks to onboarding a major NZ agriculture company.

bastion

2012

Product brand Bastion New Zealand is born in collaboration with Bastion Australia.

2013

More than 500 resellers on-boarded as customers to distribute full range of personal protection and food packaging products throughout many Kiwi sectors.

2015

A new home compostable (sugarcane) range of food packaging is introduced.

2016

Uni-Pak establishes two new product brands for its food packaging range, Emperor™ and Green Choice™.

2018

Uni-Pak celebrates welcoming it's 1,000th customer.

2019

500,000 gloves gifted to Starship Hospital and Whanganui Hospice.

2020

Uni-Pak becomes an essential partner to NZ health sector during our pandemic days, supplying 246 million protective gloves and clothing for front-line medical staff.

Hank Anderson, Julian's son becomes Uni-Pak's new General Manager while Julian steps back into an advisory role as Managing Director.

2021

Bastion launches an industrial safety glove range.

400,000 disposable gloves gifted to the SPCA.

2022

Uni-Pak diversifies international supply chain into Southeast Asia.

2023

260,000 disposable gloves donated to Hawkes Bay City Council to assist with Cyclone Gabriel clean-up.

2024

Uni-Pak invests millions into product development including specialist sector support for healthcare and manufacturing.

2024

Uni-Pak celebrates 20 years in business with 1,500+ customers.

Uni-pak becomes Unipak™.

unipak™

emperor™

Both Unipak™ and Emperor™ are treated to a brand makeover.

$30k of gloves, masks, and gowns donated to SPCA New Zealand for animals in need.